This information is supplied upon the request of, and for the exclusive and legitimate use of, the subscriber, with the understanding that it shall be kept strictly confidential. The information has been obtained from sources which the company deems to be reliable, but the company does not guarantee the verity of the information given herein. No officer or employee of this company is authorized in other than these conditions.

His personal reputation in this community is good. Known as a steady, hardworking reliable man. He is ambitious and is known to have attended a radio and television school after graduation from public schools.

His wife and two children also live at this address. Children attend the local public schools and there has been no criticism of their conduct. Subject and his family have not come to unfavorable notice of local police.

His employer reports his work is performed in a very satisfactory manner and they recommend him highly. No criticism of his character or morals here and his prospects for continued steady employment are excellent. We were unable to secure an exact statement of the amount of his income from his employer.

Subject attempted to purchase a home in Levittown, N.J. and was unsuccessful. As a result he complained to the State Division Against Discrimination of the State of New Jersey and they have been representing the subject in court actions to force the sale. Newspaper clippings, attached indicate the action as reported in the local press.
